

Safeguarding Structure at the RNHRD

The RNHRD is committed to providing high-quality and safe services to patients and will work collaboratively with partners to achieve this.

The Trust has a robust structure in place to support Safeguarding of adults and children.

The RNHRD meeting structure to support Safeguarding is:

Our lead executive for Safeguarding is Rayna McDonald, Director of Clinical Practice and Operations. Email: rayna.mcdonald@rnhrd.nhs.uk

The named doctor is Dr Hannah Connell, Consultant Clinical Psychologist. Email: hannah.connell@rnhrd.nhs.uk

The named nurse for adults and children is Jackie Cooke. Email: jackie.cooke@rnhrd.nhs.uk

The RNHRD Safeguarding lead is Jackie Cooke. Email as above.

The lead therapist for safeguarding children is Gemma Pugh. Email: gemma.pugh@rnhrd.nhs.uk

The Prevent Lead is Simon Ibbunson
Email Simon.Ibbunson@rnhrd.nhs.uk

Our meeting structure with B&NES is:

Local Safeguarding Adults Board: our representative is Rayna McDonald, Director of Operations & Clinical Practice.

Local Safeguarding Children's Board: our representative is Rayna McDonald, Director of Operations & Clinical Practice.

Safeguarding B&NES Sub-groups:

Safeguarding Adults Quality Audit Assurance & Performance, a bi-monthly meeting: our representative is a General Manager.

Safeguarding Training, a monthly meeting: our representatives are the Patient Safety Co-ordinator and Learning & Development Manager

Safeguarding Adults Safeguarding Adults Awareness & Communications, a bi-monthly meeting for which we receive minutes

Safeguarding Adults Policy & Procedure, a monthly meeting for which we receive minutes

We have action plans in place for Dementia and Learning Disabilities. We are signed-up to the Call for Action for dementia-friendly hospitals in partnership with the Dementia Action Alliance, and to Mencap's Getting it Right charter.